

Spring Break Cruises '08

March 29 and April 5, 2008

Let the experts in managing Spring Break Trips help you choose the right cruise line and the right ship.

Among the many Saturday cruise departures for your Spring Break week, those shown here are our Featured Options.

Western Caribbean from Galveston (7 days)

Ports of Call: Grand Cayman, Cozumel, and Key West.

The exciting 78,000 ton Voyager of the Seas will provide the most exciting week of your life! Among the ship's many unique features are a Rock Climbing Wall, the lively FantaSeas Teen Club, the 800 seat Broadway Melodies Theatre featuring great shows nightly and more. Various dining options, multiple pools, a full-service health club & spa and a wide variety of live entertainment are but a few of the ship's amenities. Varied water sports (as depicted to the right) are offered while at anchor. For your teens: 24 Hour Food!

Eastern Caribbean option: Sail the magnificent, new 158,000 ton Liberty of the Seas from Miami to San Juan, St. Maarten, and Labadee. In addition to amenities and activities listed above, how about an ice skating rink on board? This ship is closest thing to creating a new island!

Western Caribbean from Miami (7 days)

Ports of Call: Cozumel, Grand Cayman, and Ocho Rios, Jamaica.

The spectacular Carnival Freedom is Carnival's newest ship—and it will knock your socks off! Christened in March of this year, this is 110,000 tons of fun! Alternative dining, the world-class Spa Carnival and live entertainment day and night make going ashore almost an interruption to your fun! With the addition of the Carnival Seaside Theatre – a 12-foot-high by 22-foot-wide LED screen located poolside on Carnival Freedom's Lido deck showing Movies Under the Stars, sporting events and concerts the Carnival Freedom is as much an attraction as the destinations themselves!

Eastern Caribbean option: The 101,000 ton Carnival Triumph will take you from Miami to Half Moon Cay and Nassau in the Bahamas, San Juan and St. Thomas. The theme of this floating resort is "The Great Cities of the World" so you'll dine in Paris or London or South Beach! Catch a spectacular show in the Rome Show Lounge or Club Rio. Spa & Fitness Center, jogging track, sports courts, Teen Club, Video Zone, Internet Café, and much more await.

Also, ask about our "Exotic Caribbean" option with Norwegian Line. Sailing from Miami on March 29th, the Norwegian Sun sails through the Western Caribbean to Belize and Roatan.

Our expertise enables you to make the right decision and to avoid the pitfalls.

We are available to meet with your group to discuss the many options. Contact Ellie or Dick Noyes.
